The SCCRC's operational area consists of Schoharie County and its 16 townships and 6 villages. The SCCRC has five members on its Board of Directors and two part-time people making up its staff.

Daily operations, in addition to the loan programs, include handling and or processing checks, deposits, inquiries from businesses, and other administrative duties when applicable

FINANCIAL REPORTS

A statement of revenues and expenses, assets and liabilities, and schedule of its bonds and notes outstanding are included in the Paris submission.

- i. Audited financials are included in the Paris submission
- ii. Grant & Subsidy Programs:
One of the Agency’s objectives is to provide assistance to existing businesses and expansions and business startups with professional assistance, educational programs and loans. The loan funds are comprised of grants dedicated to this purpose and matching funds from the Agency’s accumulated working capital.
- iii. Operation & Financial Risk:
The Agency’s operating risk involves revenues and the reliance on interest rates and economic activity; both of which are influenced by the economic climate.
- iv. Bonds: The Agency has no outstanding bonds. It is a conduit for two bonds.
- v. Long Term Liabilities: The Agency has no long term liabilities.

FINANCIAL PLAN

A four-year financial plan, including current and projected capital budget is attached. See Schedule C

The operating budget, including an actual versus estimated budget is attached. See Schedule D

An analysis of the financial operating performance was undertaken and it illustrated the current economic environment. Operations were maintained as revenue was stable due to project/grant activity; although interest earnings decreased. The Agency expects interest earnings to remain low during the next year; although potential projects give some optimism regarding the revenue side of the operations.

PROCUREMENT OF SERVICES

The Agency retained the services of an auditor and legal counsel. The auditor is Mostert, Manzanero & Scott, LLP, CPA's and was awarded the contract that was bid out in May 2015. The legal counsel the Agency retains is the firm of HodgsonRuss LLP and payment is negotiated when services are needed.

INTERNAL CONTROL STRUCTURE AND PROCEDURES

The SCCRC's Control Structure: An assessment of the corporation's control structure resulted in the determination that the established controls and procedures are adequate to prevent fraud or theft and allow for full disclosure of the company's assets and liabilities. The internal control systems of the SCCRC includes adoption of an annual budget, an inventory system, an adopted accounting and disbursement system, required educational commitments, adopted ABO policies and program manuals/guidelines. Several of these policies have been adopted within the last year and have helped to strengthen the SCCRC's internal control structure to a level that is very effective, particularly for a small organization.

The established internal controls consist of one person handling the checks and deposits while any payments require two different signatures. In addition, an audit committee to review books and a governance committee has been established to review overall policies and procedures of the CRC.

2016 ASSESSMENT OF THE EFFECTIVENESS OF INTERNAL CONTROLS

The internal controls of the Schoharie County CRC deal with the accounting, grant management and cash management of the agency. The controls are as follows:

- An overall Agency budget is adopted as well as a budget for any grant program
- An accounting manual has been prepared and is followed
- Invoices have to be signed by the CEO and two signatures are required on any disbursements
- Deposits are recorded on the ledger sheets for the loan programs and reviewed by the CEO or CFO
- The CFO, in addition to the CEO, periodically reviews the books that have been prepared by the bookkeeper.

In conclusion, the current internal controls appear to be prudent and effective with the intent to prevent any errors or fraud.
